at 0400 on Sunday 12 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine then showers today, brighter later.

Today:
A dry start with some sunny spells away from the immediate coast. Becoming mostly cloudy with showers developing across the northeast from mid-morning until mid-afternoon. Winds remaining light. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Becoming increasingly dry and bright early evening as showers fade and cloud clears from the north. Partly cloudy overnight but likely staying dry for most. Cool. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Monday:
A similar start to how Sunday ended with mostly dry but cloudy conditions. Outbreaks of rain will then likely push north across the region through the afternoon and evening. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
A damp start but improving picture on Tuesday as rain clears. High pressure then likely building, but with showers still possible Wednesday. Likely dry with sunny spells Thursday.
